POLICE SEEKING INFORMATION ABOUT VEHICLE OF INTEREST IN FIREWORKS CASE

The Westminster Police Department is seeking information relating to a vehicle of interest observed in the downtown area of Westminster on Saturday, July 14th around 1:00 p.m. The vehicle may be linked to an incident reported that afternoon in which two individuals were injured by a firework that was fired into a crowd. The vehicle (pictured below) is described as an extended cab pickup truck (possibly Ford Ranger), white in color with a black bed liner, black or grey running boards, fender flairs and mud flaps, in good condition, occupied by two subjects.
