UPDATE: BANK ROBBERY SUSPECTS ARRESTED

On October 07, 2021, at approximately 2:32 PM, the suspect, later identified as Michael Patrick Holland, robbed the Farmers and Merchant Bank located at 275 Clifton Boulevard. No weapon was displayed. The modus operandi was very similar to the bank robbery at the New Windsor State Bank that occurred on September 23, 2021. Mr. Holland was last seen running towards Woodward Road.

Based on video footage, police were able to determine that Holland entered a silver Honda Civic with a black hood and a rear spoiler. Police broadcast a “lookout” for this distinctive vehicle, and Carroll County Sheriff’s Office deputies and Hampstead Police Department officers located and stopped the vehicle in Hampstead later that afternoon. Westminster Police Detectives responded to Hampstead and positively identified the vehicle’s passenger as the bank robber based on video evidence. Detectives arrested Michael Holland and subsequently recovered evidence from the robbery. Detectives also arrested Michael Green, who drove the vehicle, for his role in the bank robbery. Both suspects are currently being held without bond.

Detectives believe that Holland and Green were also involved in the New Windsor State Bank robbery on September 23, 2021. Detectives continue to pursue this investigation with more information to follow.
